Explore the 18TH CENTURY
for just $7 per youth*

Come visit the bustling, restored 18th-century town where Washington dined and Jefferson danced and experience the sights and sounds as they were more than 200 years ago. Each day in Colonial Williamsburg's Historic Area the streets fill with the echoing sounds of the Fifes and Drums cadence, the hoofbeats of trotting horses, and the re-created tales that led to America's freedom. Colonial Williamsburg invites Parks and Recreation groups to

- Step into our interactive street theater, Revolutionary City®, to learn about the challenging decisions and troublesome times at the heart of America's quest for independence.†
- Explore homes, trade shops, and government buildings and talk with tradespeople and founding fathers.
- Discover our award-winning museums featuring renowned treasures from 1600 through 1830 and one of the nation's finest collections of American folk art.
- Lend a hand at Great Hopes Plantation to learn how most Virginians lived more than 200 years ago.

We offer a hands-on, engaging experience that is sure to be a highlight of the summer!
